

Press release Wonderfully Made and Worthwhile

Wonderful children's book on sex education

How can we support parents and children regarding themes about relationships and sexuality? The wonderful children's book Wonderfully Made and Worthwhile offers a helpful tool to support children and families.

Wonderfully Made and Worthwhile is a cheerful picture, reading and activity book and is meant for children aged 8 years and older. It challenges boys and girls to think about their own bodies and feelings. Reading this book with children can open up lots of possibilities for good conversations within a family. The book is written from a Christian perspective: every child is valuable, created by God. Every person is worth being known, being loved and being protected.

Positive experiences

Thousands of families in the Netherlands are using the Dutch version of this children's book in their homes since 2020. Many parents and children are happy with it.

"If you've never talked about it, it becomes a loaded topic in your head, while for such a young child it isn't at all. The text is nice and clear, nice to look at! Very good that there are clear references to other pages. My 9-year-old really enjoyed watching it!" – a mother of 5 children (aged 0-12 years)

"We are all very positive about it. The girls find it very interesting and educational. It is so attractive and concrete. The text activates the children to ask questions, resulting in many worthwhile conversations. Beautifully worded and explained from the Bible, that you are unique and valuable and that you should therefore be protected!" – a mother of three girls (6-9 years)

Download book preview

A book review can be downloaded here: <https://wonderlijkemaakt.nl/wonderfully-made-and-worthwhile>. As you can see in the preview the table of contents of Wonderfully Made and Worthwhile includes all themes of RSE (Relationships and Sex Education). The book is about self-image, lasting relationships, social norms and protective behaviours.

The book preview contains only a few pages. Are you interested in more pages and do you see possibilities for the complete English translation and publication of this book? Get in touch with us: info@wonderfullymade.eu.

About the author

Elly van der Gouwe is married with four children: two boys and two girls. She is a family counselor, teaches child development at college level and is an educational advisor to Christian schools regarding their sex education programs.

Wonderfully Made curriculum

Wonderfully Made and Worthwhile ties in with the Dutch curriculum for RSE Wonderfully Made. In the Netherlands Wonderfully Made is used by more than 400 Christian schools for primary education. Wonderfully Made is also available in a German edition and a Spanish edition.

Elly van der Gouwe – Illustrated by Linke Post

WONDERFULLY MADE AND WORTHWHILE

That's you!

If you want to know everything about boys and girls, falling in love, showing affection, sexuality and much more...

WONDERFULLY MADE AND WORTHWHILE

Elly van der Gouwe

50

Find out what happens in Jiva and Geuben's ever yobay lives!

Who is allowed to give you a kiss or a hug?
What are the differences between a girl's body and a boy's body?
Do you want to get married someday?

In this colorful book, you can read all about things that you will feel and experience as a boy or as a girl, both now and as you get older. It's about your body, your feelings, your friends and your family. You can read about dating, marriage, and physical affection. You can read about how babies grow in their mother's womb, and how they are born. This book is about private parts, about sexuality, about saying no, about secrets, and about asking for help if you need it.

This book is written for boys and girls from all different backgrounds, from different families, and with different feelings. Every boy and girl is wonderfully made and worth getting to know. So are you!

You can read this book from cover to cover, or you can read the chapters in whatever order you'd like. You can come back to it time and again to look something up or just to keep reading.

This cheerful picture / reading / activity book is meant for children ages 8 and up. It's meant to challenge boys and girls to think about their own bodies and feelings. Reading this book with your child can open up lots of possibilities for discussion.

This book is written from a Christian perspective: every child is valuable, created by God. Every person is worth being known, being loved and being protected.

About the Author:
Elly van der Gouwe is married and has four children, two boys and two girls. She is a family counselor, teacher, child development at the college level, and also consults with Christian school regarding their sex education programs.

Driestar onderwijsadvies

de banier

UITGEVERIJ

